

This is Life Lesson 9 Handout

Beautiful bubbly 10 year old Pinky lived in a remote village in Jharkhand, India. She had a carefree and simple life. Her family was poor but she hardly took notice. One dark day, someone shattered her dreams. A trusted relative kidnapped Pinky and took her to Mumbai. In a dark recess of the city, he sold her to a pimp for a mere $400. Her first night in the brothel was an unspeakable horror. A clean cut man desiring a virgin child forced himself upon her violating her innocence and completely devastating her spirit. She endured hours of abuse and nearly bled to death her first night as a sex slave. Pinky limped about her prison over the years that followed. She began caring for an abandoned toddler she found walking the streets of the brothels. Soon she would have a second child to protect. She was pregnant. Youcanfree.us met Pinky at the height of her despair and became involved in the process of trying to rescue her. Sadly when the day of her rescue arrived, she was untraceable. Pinky is the face of the thousands of victims we continue to pursue.

A woman on the railroad platform watched Sanjana – an abandoned girl falter around the station, as a cat watches a bird with a broken wing. She made her move. “Come with me to Kamathipura. I have a housekeeping job there for you,” she beckoned. Sanjana went and the woman threw her into the red light district for a mere 10,000 rupees ($200). Sanjana was young and beautiful, and attracted many wealthy clients as she worked the streets of the district.

The weeks passed, her belly grew, and the pimps took notice of the life developing inside her. They transferred her into the darkness of a brothel run by an abusive manager. Day in and day out he physically abused her for her decreased activity and uncooperative behaviors during intercourse with customers. While her body required food, he fed her mostly alcohol. Drunk, weak, and broken Sanjana yearned for rescue.

Youcanfree.us took Sanjana out of the red light district and to the safe house. She was hungry and unkempt with only one plastic bag of dirty clothes to her name. The safe house staff issued her a starter kit of clothing, toiletries, and a blanket symbolic of her fresh start. She bathed, ate then ate some more as if eating for the first time. She hardly spoke but a few words before dropping into a heavy sleep in her new, clean bed. That night may have been the most peaceful she had experience in ten years. On Sept 18th 2014 she delivered a healthy baby girl. Both mother and baby are in good health. Sanjana continues to bless the safe house with her fun loving, caring personality.

God is re-writing her story.

2 Samuel 2 (AMP)

1 AFTER THIS, David inquired of the Lord, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the Lord said to him, Go up. David said, To which shall I go up? And He said, To Hebron.

4 And the men of Judah came and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah.

10 Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began his two-year reign over Israel. But the house of Judah followed David.

11 And David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah for seven years and six months.

2 Samuel 3:1 Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; and David grew steadily stronger, but the house of Saul grew weaker continually.

1 Samuel 18:25–27 (AMP)

25 Saul said, say this to David, The king wants no dowry but a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to avenge himself of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the Philistines' hands.

26 When his servants told David these words, it pleased [him] well to become the king's son-in-law. Before the days expired,

27 David went, he and his men, and slew two hundred Philistine men, and brought their foreskins and gave them in full number to the king, that he might become the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter as wife.

2 Samuel 5 (AMP)

1 THEN ALL the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.

2 In times past, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. And the Lord told you, you shall feed My people Israel and be prince over [them].

3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them [there] before the Lord, and they anointed [him] king over Israel.

4 David was thirty years old when he began his forty-year reign.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who said to David, you shall not enter here, for the blind and the lame will prevent you; they thought, David cannot come in here.

10 David became greater and greater, for the Lord God of hosts was with him.

Daniel 2:20 Daniel said, "Let the name of God be blessed forever and ever, For wisdom and power belong to Him. 21"It is He who changes the times and the epochs; He removes kings and establishes kings...

Psalm 47:7–8 (AMP)

7 For God is the King of all the earth...

8 God reigns over the nations; God sits upon His holy throne.

2 Samuel 5:12 And David perceived that the Lord had established him king over Israel and that He had exalted his kingdom for His people Israel's sake.

2 Samuel 6

2 And David arose and went with all the people who were with him to Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God...

3 They placed the ark of God on a new cart that they might bring it from the house of Abinadab which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were leading the new cart.

5 Meanwhile, David and all the house of Israel were celebrating before the LORD with all kinds of instruments made of fir wood, and with lyres, harps, tambourines, castanets and cymbals.

6 But when they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out toward the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen nearly upset it.

7 And the anger of the LORD burned against Uzzah, and God struck him down there for his irreverence; and he died there by the ark of God.

John 14:15 (NASB95)

15 "If you love Me, you will keep My commandments.

John 14:23–26 (NASB95)

23 Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our abode with him.

24 "He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and the word which you hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me.

8 David became angry because of the LORD's outburst against Uzzah, and that place is called Perez-uzzah to this day.

9 So David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?"

10 And David was unwilling to move the ark of the LORD into the city of David with him; but David took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

1 Chronicles 15:11–13

11 Then David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites...

12 and said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' households of the Levites; consecrate yourselves both you and your relatives, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place that I have prepared for it.

13 "Because you did not carry it at the first, the LORD our God made an outburst on us, for we did not seek Him according to the ordinance."
